

THE NEW DAILY APPEAL.

CARSON: WEDNESDAY: OCT. 2

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Indianapolis Sentinel now calls Carl Schurz a simple American Senator. Not long since the same paper called him a mercenary Hessian. It is sad that he should be so many things.

There is authority for a renewal of the statement that Greeley more than ever regards Gratz as an incubus and attributes the ebb of the great Greeley wave directly to the presence on the ticket of that burdensome attachment.

Bennington county, Vermont, is a fearful example of the fatal effects of an overdose of crow. Last year this county was the only one that honored a Democrat with election to the State Senate. This year two Republican Senators there are elected by about one thousand majority.

The former organ of Dan Voorhees, the Terre Haute Journal stubbornly refuses to support Greeley. Mr. Voorhees, after declaring that no honest or honorable Democrat could vote for Mr. Greeley, finally consented to swallow his ration of crow, and thereby acknowledged that he was neither honest nor honorable, but the Journal clings to the ancient faith, and is sustained almost unanimously by the Irish Democrats of Terre Haute. At a recent public meeting two hundred and fifty of them resolved to vote against the Democratic State ticket.

THE IMPERIAL FIRE

INSURANCE CO. OF LONDON

HAS COMPLIED WITH THE LAWS of the State of Nevada, requiring a deposit of $50,000.

Sound Business Considerations why the Imperial should be preferred: First—It was established in 1803, and is the oldest FIRE Insurance Company represented in the United States.

Second—It has a subscribed capital of $8,000,000, of which $3,500,000 is paid up in gold, with further accumulated assets of $2,216,015, making it at once the Strongest and Richest Fire Insurance Company in the World.

Third—This Company does a Fire Business Exclusively, and none of its assets are liable to be diverted for LIFE or MARINE BUSINESS, as is the case with ALL other English Companies represented on this coast.

Fourth—This Company's losses at CHICAGO were less than ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, and have been paid in full DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR. FALKNER, BELL & CO., General Agents for Pacific Coast, 430 California street, San Francisco.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Adopted at the Republican National Convention, at Philadelphia, June 6, 1872.

The Republican party of the United States, assembled at a National Convention, in the city of Philadelphia, on June 5 and 6, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During eleven years of its supremacy, it has accepted, with grand courage, the solemn duties of the times. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion; emancipated 4,000,000 of slaves; decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it has criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily advanced with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great west, and initiated a wise policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted; the public land freely given to actual settlers; immigration encouraged and protected, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at low rates; the revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions of rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 a year, a great financial crisis has been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's pledge for the future. We believe that the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation; neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, and not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The National Government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all people who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a system by which shall be abolished the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal and interest, except such as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, the duties on which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to the laborer, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in unsparing horror the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union; their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance—once a subject always a subject—having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the true idea of the individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of our adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished, and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention, is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognizes the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box; and, therefore, they are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt, and of the rates of interest on the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy redemption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom; their admission to the wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the power delegated by them to the State and to the Federal Government. It disapproves of the resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with the rights not surrendered by the people to neither the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and shipbuilding.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and, with him at our head, we start to-day on a new march to victory.
